

DC Direct to Get List

I have a lot of DC Direct Figures. Here are the older more obscure characters that are on my to-get list.

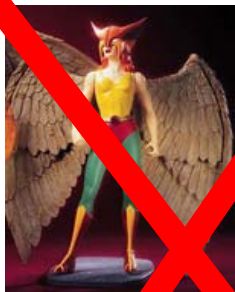

List contains my upper limit prices. (I know many of these are worth a lot more, but this is what they're worth to me. And since many are obscure characters some of the prices already take into account how much I think I'd have to pay for them on the low end.) More or less listed in order of importance. The ones with double asterisks (**) I'd particularly like to get.

If there is a (+S) after I'd be willing to add $5 or so to the price for shipping.

I don't care about packaging if the figures are in good shape. Some of the listed were originally in two-packs or box sets and I'd prefer to get them loose unless the two pack or box set price was lower than my amount.)

The non-asterisk ones I'm fairly ambivalent about, if I somehow found all of them all at the same time, I'd still only get one or two of them at a time because I generally not interested in them enough to want to drop a lot of cash all at once on them.

Let's face it, it would actually be a bummer to get all of these, because then what would I have to look forward to finding when I drop in to a new comic store or go to a convention?

Hawkwoman $40**(+) loose
(This is part of a two pack originally)

Should go good with the New Hawkman that is coming out and finish off my saten era Justice League.

Power Girl $40**(+S)

(She'd fill in the JLI era JLI. However my guess is that we'll eventually get a new sculpt of her in an Identity Crisis or Supes wave)

Doctor Midnight $25**(+S)

(Cool costume.)

Wildcat $25**(+S)

(due to the Black Canary Connection)

Superfriend Lex Luthor $15**

Loose (originally part of a two pack) Iconic version.

Superfriend Penquin $15**

Loose (originally part of a two pack) Iconic Version.

Doctor Fate $30**(+S)

(Would balance out the Marvel Legends shelf Dr. Strange)

Raven $20**

(Would help finish off my Titans... but I'm guessing they are likely to rerelease this eventually)

Beast Boy $15** (was released as part of a boxed set)

(Would help finish off my Titans... but I'm guessing they are likely to rerelease this eventually)

Krypto and Streaky $6****
each pet. (Would go nicely with Ace the Bat Hound and Superboy)

Lobo $45
(You could set him on the shelf next to Wolverine, Nuff said.)

Steel $15
(Actually the JLU cartoon has generated some interest in this character for me, plus DC has so few cool black heroes.)

Monel $(Still pretty common but I don't want enough to pay full price)

Chameleon Boy $10 (Still pretty common but I don't want enough to pay full price)

Swamp Thing $20 (+S)
(Extremely unlikely at this price. Very rare figure. But I bought Man-Thing after the Bad Sci-Fi movie... so he would go nicely with him on the shelf)

Lois Lane $15
(originally part of a two pack)
(To go with the forth coming Daily Planet Wave of figures that doesn't have a regular Lois)

Sgt. Rock $16
(I'm guessing that they will eventually get around to a Jonah Hex Figure and I think Sgt Rock would look good next to him.)

Uncle Sam $12
(No desire to get other members of Freedom Force... but every time I see this figure I think of the Alex Ross Poster.)

Cheetah $10
(She's shown up in Flash recently. Could always use a few more female villains for the shelf.)

Bizarro $10 (Pretty sure they will eventually come out with a more Superfriend/Silver Age styled one, which I would prefer anyway.)

Ares $16
(eh... something has to be last.)
